

TEXT TO SPEECH SOFTWARE

Description

This resource lets you convert text and documents to mp3 files that you can listen to.

Price: Free (or 99.50$)

Free version can open and read PDF, TXT, Docx and ePub file extensions. Paid version can reproduce text with more voices and save files to mp3.

This resource can be helpful for supporting:

- reading and attention related issues and difficulties,
- visual impairment related difficulties,
- learning related disorders and difficulties.

Accessibility grade

This resource can give a moderate help in accessing written content.

Practical use

The student that uses this resource can listen to long texts that may be difficult to follow. The tool has an available dyslexia-friendly font.

DIGITALL

HOW TO USE?

STUDENT

Write, paste or upload the text of the document you wish to listen to, select the speed and press the play button to hear it read out loud.

Step 1.

Write or paste the text that you wish to listen to and click on the play button.

Step 2.

Select the speed and the voice outcome. The FREE version has 2 voices to choose from.

Step 3.

You can also upload different written files extensions: Pdf, Txt, Doc(x), Ods, Odt, Ppt(x), Png, Jpeg and ePub files.

